BOSTON, OCTOBER 1.

Province of the MASSACHUSETTS-BAY, September 27.

Wedneſday laſt the Great and General Court or Aſſembly of this Province met at Harvard-College in Cambridge, being the Time and Place to which they were prorogued: The Council and Houſe adjourned to the next Morning at ten o'Clock, when his Honour was pleaſed to make the following SPEECH to both Houſes, viz.

Gentlemen of the Council, and
Gentlemen of the Houſe of Repreſentatives,

IT is now become, in ſeveral reſpects, more neceſſary for the General Court to proceed upon the Buſineſs of the Province than it was when I met you in your two laſt Seſſions. Many of our Laws, which have been of great Utility, are expired, ſome for the Puniſhment of criminal Offences, others which affect the Courſe of our judicial Proceedings, and the People call for the Revival of them. There are other Affairs depending of a very intereſting Nature which had not then come to our Knowledge, and which may be determined before we can have another Opportunity of acting upon them. The Council thought it not adviſeable for me to prorouge the Court to a further Time. Their Opinion and Advice, which always have Weight with me, induced me to call you together rather ſooner than I had before intended.

Purſuant to my Inſtructions and the eſtabliſhed Practice, I cauſed the Acts and Doings of the General Court at the Seſſion in March laſt, to be tranſmitted to England by the firſt Opportunity. Particular Notice has been taken of a Grant made in that Seſſion to a Number of Perſons who had ſettled upon Lands in the Eaſtern Part of the Province, and, it appearing that other Perſons had alſo began Settlements Eaſtward of Sagadahoc, ſome under Colour of Grants from the General Court, notwithſtanding that by the expreſs Terms of the Charter ſuch Grants are of no Force, Validity or Effect, until approved by the Crown; others without any Colour of Grant or Title whatſoever: Theſe Settlements are deemed of great Importance in various Lights, but in none more ſo than in that of the Encouragement they have given to the Waſte and Deſtruction of the King's Timber, which is a Matter of the moſt ſerious Conſideration in reſpect of the Naval Strength of the Kingdom. It is made my Duty to inform you, that, as the Remedy for this great Miſchief ought properly and can only effectually come from the Province within whoſe Juriſdiction the Lands lie, it is expected all Treſpaſſers ſhould be proſecuted: And, I am further to inform you, that the neglecting to exert every legal Means to remove and prevent all unwarrantable Intruſions, will be imputed as a Default for which the Province will ſtand reſponſible. From a Senſe of my Duty to the King, and from a Regard to the Intereſt of the Province, I muſt deſire you to take this Affair into your Conſideration, and do what is neceſſary on your Part. I will aſſiſt and concur with you to the utmoſt of my Power.

Gentlemen of the Houſe of Repreſentatives,

In order to conform to the Laws of the Province, and to maintain the public Faith, it was neceſſary the Treaſurer ſhould iſſue his Warrants for the Aſſeſſment of the whole Province Debt, in the current Year. If theſe Warrants have not been ſo far executed as to render any Alteration impracticable, and you ſhall be of Opinion that the Burden will be too great for the People to bear, I am willing to conſent to an Act for affording the neceſſary Relief, by eaſing the preſent Year of Part of this Tax, and charging the ſame Sum upon a future Year.

A State of the Treaſury will be laid before you, by which it will appear that a Supply will be neceſſary. Some Appropriations are quite exhauſted.

His Majeſty having thought fit to order that the Garriſon of Caſtle-William, in the Pay of the Province, ſhould be withdrawn, and that this Fortreſs ſhould be garriſoned by his Majeſty's Regular Forces, I am prevented from deſiring you to make the uſual Eſtabliſhment. The laſt Eſtabliſhment expired the 20th Day of June laſt. I know you did not expect I ſhould then diſmiſs the Officers and Men. I muſt now deſire you to continue their Pay and Subſiſtance from the Expiration of the Eſtabliſhment; and, as they are diſcharged at a Seaſon of the Year when it will be difficult for them to find Employ, I could wiſh that the Continuance might extend, at leaſt, to the 20th of November, the uſual Time of making up the Roll. It is no more than Juſtice to the Garriſon to ſay they have behaved well, and have ſome Claim to Favour.

The Eſtabliſhment for Fort-Pownall being alſo expired, I muſt recommend to you to provide for the Revival and Continuance of it.

Gentlemen of the Council, and Houſe of Repreſentatives,

As the Affairs which lye before you are of great Moment, and deſerve your ſerious and mature Deliberation, ſo they muſt take up much Time. It is therefore more neceſſary that you ſhould begin without Delay, and ſhould proceed with all Diligence. I wiſh there may be a good Harmony in the Legiſlature, and that we may unite in ſuch Meaſures as our common Intereſt, the Intereſt of the Province, requires of us.

T. HUTCHINSON.

Council-Chamber, 27th September, 1770.

OCTOBER 4. In the Engliſh Papers are a Number of Letters from Boſton, containing the Debates at Faneuil-Hall, relative to Non-Importation, Reports of Committees, &c. with many bitter and cruel Reflections on the Inhabitants of the Town, who have ſuffered moſt of any Colony by the Agreement: The Adherence to the Agreement in June laſt, and the Philadelphians and New-Yorkers joining therein, gave a moſt ſenſible Alarm to the People in England, and made even the Enemies of America do Juſtice to the public Virtue and Patriotiſm of its Inhabitants, which they allow is unparrallelled in modern Times:----But how will they be affected when the Orders arrives from New-York for Goods; which doubtleſs would be in a Week after Captain White ſailed! Certainly they will be ſurprized.

OCTOBER 8. Wedneſday laſt the General Court attended at the Meeting-Houſe in Cambridge; in the Forenoon, the Rev. Mr. Cooke of Menotomy, preached from Nehemiah ix. 36 and 37, Verſes. Behold we are Servants this Day, and for the Land that thou gaveſt unto our Fathers, to eat the Fruit thereof, and the good thereof, behold, we are Servants in it.---And it yieldeth much increaſe unto the Kings whom thou haſt ſet over us, becauſe of our Sins: Alſo they have Dominion over our Bodies, and over our Cattle, at their Pleaſure, and we are in great Diſtreſs. In the Afternoon, the Rev. Mr. Appleton of Cambridge, preached from Pſalm cxliii. laſt Clauſe of Verſe 8.---Cauſe me to know the Way wherein I ſhould walk, for I lift up my Soul unto thee.

The next Day the Houſe met, and proceeded to the Conſideration of the Report of the Committee appointed to conſider his Honour's Speech to both Houſes; the Subſtance of which Report was, that it was for the Intereſt of the Province that the Houſe ſtill adhere to their former Reſolution not to proceed to the public Buſineſs. After ſome Debate upon the Queſtion, Whether to accept this Report, it was moved that the further Conſideration of it be referred, and that in the mean Time a Committee be appointed to prepare a Meſſage to the Lieutenant-Governor, praying that his Honour would be pleaſed to explain a certain Paſſage in his Speech; and alſo that he would inform the Houſe whether he had received any late Inſtructions with reſpect to the Continuance of the Aſſembly out of the Town of Boſton, and Mr. Hancock, Mr. John Adams, Mr. Ingerſol, Mr. Samuel Adams, and Capt. Fuller, were appointed accordingly.

This Committee the ſame Day reported the following Draft, which was accepted by the Houſe; and Mr. Hancock, Mr. Pickering, Capt. Heath, Mr. Wood, and Capt. Thayer, were appointed a Committee to preſent the ſame to his Honour, viz.

May it pleaſe your Honour,

THE Houſe of Repreſentatives having taken into Conſideration your Speech to both Houſes at the opening of this Seſſion, beg Leave to requeſt your Honour to explain a Part of it, which is expreſſed in ſuch Terms as leave it uncertain in its true Intent and Meaning-----The Paſſage referred to, is that wherein you ſay, "There are other Affairs of a very intereſting Nature which had not then come to our Knowledge, and which may be determined before we can have another Opportunity of acting upon them." No ſuch Matters have come to the Knowledge of this Houſe; if they have been communicated to your Honour from his Majeſty or his Miniſters, we deſire you would be pleaſed to lay them before us; that we may have a preciſe Underſtanding of what your Honour intends, the want of which prevents our coming at preſent to any Determination on your Speech.

The Houſe are alſo very deſirous that your Honour would inform them, whether you have received any late Inſtructions, agreeable to your Expectation expreſſed in your Meſſage to this Houſe of the firſt of June laſt, relating to the Continuance of this Aſſembly out of its ancient, legal, and only convenient Place, the Town-Houſe in Boſton.

To which Meſſage his Honour was pleaſed to return the following

ANSWER, viz.

Gentlemen of the Houſe of Repreſentatives,

I Am not at Liberty to make public or communicate to you by Speech or Meſſage an Order of his Majeſty's Council of the 6th of July laſt, but it appears to me, that in Conſequence thereof the State of the Province of Maſſachuſetts-Bay will undoubtedly be recommended to the Conſideration of Parliament in the approaching Seſſion. This is the principal Matter of Moment to which my Speech at the opening of the Seſſion of the General Court had reſpect. Although I am not at Liberty to lay this Order before you, yet I am very ready to give all the Information in my Power to any Committee you may think proper to appoint, of the Facts and Ground upon which this Order is founded, ſo far as ſhall conſiſt with my Inſtructions.

His Majeſty has been pleaſed to cauſe to be expreſſed his entire Approbation of my ſummoning the Court to meet at Cambridge. I am reſtrained from removing it to Boſton, but I am not confined to the Town of Cambridge. I am willing to meet the Court at any Town in the Province which ſhall appear to me to be moſt for the Convenience of the Members, and which ſhall not militate with the Spirit of my Inſtructions.

T. HUTCHINSON.

Cambridge, 4th October, 1770.

The next Day, (Friday) Col. Murray, Col. Gerriſh, Mr. John Adams, Brigadier Prebble, and Mr. Samuel Adams, were appointed a Committee to conſider the ſame and report.

In the Afternoon Col. Murray from the aforementioned Committee, reported as their unanimous Opinion, That his Honour's Meſſage did not afford that Light which the Houſe requeſted in their Meſſage to him; and that it appeared to the Committee from his Honour's Meſſage, that he was reſtrained by Inſtructions, from communicating the ſame to the Houſe in a Parliamentary Manner:

And therefore that an Addreſs and Remonſtrance be prepared in anſwer to his Honour's Meſſage of Yeſterday, and a Committee be appointed for that Purpoſe, to report as ſoon as may be.----Whereupon Mr. John Adams, Mr. Samuel Adams, Mr. Hancock, Mr. David Ingerſol, and Mr. Bullen, were appointed.

Then the Houſe entered into a Conſideration of the aforementioned Report of the Committee on his Honour's Speech to both Houſes, and upon the Queſtion being put, Whether the Houſe do accept the Report? It paſſed in the Negative.

It was then moved that the Queſtion be put, Whether the Houſe will proceed to the public Buſineſs in the Town of Cambridge? And after Debate, a Motion was made that a Committee be choſen to prepare a Reſolve to the following Purpoſe, viz.---That it is from abſolute Neceſſity only that the Houſe proceed to Buſineſs; and alſo to prepare a Proteſt againſt the Reſtraint they are under to hold the Seſſion out of the Town-Houſe in Boſton, the ſame to be entered on the Journal. In Conſequence of which Motion, Mr. Wood, Mr. Hancock, Brigadier Prebble, Mr. Samuel Adams, and Major Read, of Marblehead, were appointed to prepare a Reſolve and Proteſt accordingly.

The Houſe ſtands adjourned, till Monday, (this Day) three o'Clock: It appears that the deciſive Queſtion, Whether the Houſe will continue to make the Stand which they ſo nobly perſevered in thro' the two laſt Seſſions, is not yet determined. It is a Queſtion upon which much, perhaps our all, depends; it is hoped therefore that the Guardians of our Rights and Liberties will come to ſuch a Concluſion, as ſhall be juſtifiable, before God, their Conſtituents, and Poſterity.

Early on Monday Morning laſt a Number of Gentlemen ſet out from hence for Newbury-Port, in order to convey the Corps of the Rev. Mr. WHITEFIELD, to this Town, to be here interred: But the People at Newbury-Port would not allow the Corps to be brought away, they having prepared a Brick Tomb under the Preſbyterian Meeting-Houſe: His Funeral was attended by a great Concourſe of People on Tueſday Afternoon.----Mr. WHITEFIELD, the Day before his Death preached in an open Field at Saliſbury, and arrived at Newbury-Port in the Evening; ---about two o'Clock he got up and dreſſed himſelf, complained of his Illneſs, and went to prayer with the Gentleman who accompanies him;---then lay on the Bed with his Cloaths on, and at four o'Clock, roſe again, ſaid his Aſthma was coming on---opened the Windows---found himſelf greatly diſtreſs'd for Breath ---walked two or three Times acroſs the Chamber---went into the Entry-way, and threw up the Window there, but could get no Relief---ſaid to his Companion, He was juſt a-going---who then took hold of him, led him to, and ſeated him in a Chair, and about ſix o'Clock he fainted, and died without ſaying any Thing more.

Laſt Thurſday Morning ſailed from hence for London, the Captains Jacobſon and White; with the latter of whom went Paſſenger John Williams, Eſq; Inſpector-General of his Majeſty's Cuſtoms in North-America.

Yeſterday afternoon arrived the Romney Man of War, Commodore Hood, from Halifax; he was ſaluted by the Roſe, Senegal, and Viper Ships of War, as alſo by his Majeſty's Caſtle-William.

It is ſaid that Wagers have been laid at great Odds, that a great Aſſembly will not proceed to do Buſineſs in the Place where they are now held; conſidering themſelves as under Conſtraint.

OCTOBER 11. We hear the Honourable Houſe of Repreſentatives at Cambridge on Tueſday laſt Voted to proceed to Buſineſs. 59 Yeas, 29 Nays.

At a meeting of the merchants in this town at the Britiſh coffee-houſe, it was unanimouſly voted to alter the non-importation agreement, and to open the importation of goods from Great-Britain, except teas, and ſuch other articles as are, or may be ſubject to duties for raiſing a revenue in America.

We hear there are new appointments for Surveyors of his Majeſty's woods in North-America, viz.

His Excellency Governor Wentworth for New-Hampſhire, &c.

Honourable Brigadier Ruggles for this province, and the northern parts of Nova-Scotia.

Captain Gavel of New-York, for the Southern provinces.

And, Mr. Seamell, for the navy.

With ſallaries of £.300 ſterl. per annum, each.

Yeſterday morning arrived here Commodore Gambier, in his Majeſty's ſhip Saliſbury.

Now in this harbour, his Majeſty's ſhips Saliſbury, Romney, Roſe, Beaver, Viper, Senegal, and two armed ſchooners.

SALEM, (In Maſſachuſetts-Bay) OCTOBER 9.

We hear that one Mr. Stewart, a Native of Scotland, is appointed to ſucceed the Honourable Mr. Temple, as one of the American Board of Commiſſioners.

NEWPORT, (Rhode-Iſland) OCTOBER 15.

Laſt Tueſday Morning about 4 o'Clock, died, at South-Kingſtown, in the 35th Year of his Age, Oliver Arnold, Eſq.----A Gentleman who for ſeveral Years paſt ſuſtained the Office of Attorney-General of this Colony with great Honour to himſelf and Advantage to the Public; and whoſe modeſt Firmneſs, inflexible Integrity, and Humanity of Heart, rendered his Character highly worthy the Imitation of all his Brethren of the Bar, and his Death a real Loſs to Society. His Remains were interred at Providence on Thurſday.

NEW-YORK, OCTOBER 1.

The SPEECH of his Excellency WILLIAM FRANKLIN, Eſq; Captain-General, Governor and Commander in Chief, in and over the Colony of NEW-JERSEY, and Territories thereon depending in America, Chancellor and Vice-Admiral in the ſame, &c.

To the COUNCIL and GENERAL ASSEMBLY of the ſaid Colony in General Aſſembly convened at Perth-Amboy.

Gentlemen of the Council, and Gentlemen of the General Aſſembly,

SINCE the laſt Seſſion, I have received his Majeſty's Royal Diſallowance of the Act for ſtriking One Hundred Thouſand Pounds in Bills of Credit. The Grounds of this Diſallowance will be explained to you, by the Report of the Board of Trade upon that Law. If, on Conſideration, you ſhall be of Opinion, that a new Act may be ſo framed, as to obviate thoſe Objections, and yet anſwer thoſe ſalutary Purpoſes intended by the other, you may be aſſured it will give me Pleaſure to be able to afford it my Concurrence; and that I will uſe all the Endeavours to obtain his Majeſty's Confirmation of it, which may be in my Power.

Gentlemen of the General Aſſembly,

I have only to requeſt at preſent, that you would make due Proviſion for the Support of Government, and for the Supply of his Majeſty's Troops ſtationed in this Province.

Gentlemen of the Council, and Gentlemen of the General Aſſembly,

The Experience I have had of your good Diſpoſitions, renders it unneceſſary to recommend to you a Preſervation of that Harmony and good Underſtanding, which is ſo beneficial to the Public; I have therefore only to wiſh, that our mutual Endeavours to promote his Majeſty's Service, and the Welfare of his Subjects in this Province, may be attended with Succeſs equal to our Intentions.

WILLIAM FRANKLIN.

Council-Chamber, September 28, 1770.

OCTOBER 8. On Tueſday laſt, The Corporation for the Relief of the Widows and Children of Clergymen in the Communion of the Church of England in America, met in this City: And on Wedneſday a well adapted Diſcourſe, warmly recommending the Charity, was preached in Trinity Church, to a very large and reſpectable Audience, by the Reverend Dr. AUCHMUTY, one of the Members of the Corporation, from 2 Kings iv. 1. 2. Upon this Occaſion, ſeveral Pieces of Cathedral Muſic, with Extracts from Handel's celebrated Oratorio, THE MESSIAH, were performed, and a very liberal Contribution was collected for the Benefit of this benevolent Inſtitution, which, together with ſeveral Benefactions ſince received from Perſons who were prevented, by the Badneſs of the Weather, from attending at Church, amounted, we hear, to upwards of £. 200. The Corporation dined together, and were favoured with the Company of his Excellency General Gage, Sir William Draper, the Mayor and Recorder of this City, and ſeveral other Gentlemen; after which they proceeded to finiſh the remaining Buſineſs of their Meeting. As it is preſumed that there are many charitably diſpoſed Perſons, who would be deſirous to know in what Manner they may convey their Benefactions, we are deſired to give Notice, that Donations to this laudable Charity will be thankfully received by Jacob Le Roy, Eſq; of this City; the Reverend Dr. Chandler, of Elizabeth-Town; and Francis Hopkinſon, Eſq; of Philadelphia, the Treaſurers; and, in general, by the Clergy and the other Members of the Corporation, in each of the three Provinces.

We hear that the Reverend General Convention of Delegates from the confociated Churches of Connecticut, and from the Synod of New-York and Philadelphia, met at Elizabeth-Town on Wednesday the third of this Month, to conſider the General State of the Churches under their Care.

The Convention was opened with a Sermon by the Reverend Mr. Nathaniel Taylor, of New-Milford, from Ezekiel xxxvii. 9---11.

PHILADELPHIA, October 4.

IN Conſequence of an Advertiſement, which was publiſhed in the Papers, and diſperſed in Hand-Bills round the City and Suburbs, a large Body of reſpectable Inhabitants aſſembled at the Time and Place appointed, and having unanimouſly choſen Joseph Fox, Eſq; Chairman, they came to the following Reſolutions.

1. That the Claim of Parliament to tax the Colonies, and particularly the Act impoſing Duties on Tea, &c. for the Purpoſe of raiſing a Revenue in America, is ſubverſive of the conſtitutional Rights of the Colonies.

2. That the Union of the Colonies is neceſſary, and ought to be maintained, in order to procure a Redreſs of their common Grievances, and to preſerve their common Rights and Liberties.

3. That it would have been for the Reputation of this City to have conſulted the other Colonies, before any Breach had been made in the Non-Importation Agreement, entered into by the Merchants and Traders of this City.

4. That the adopting the Maryland Agreement, or one ſimilar thereto, would be of Advantage to this Province, and at the ſame Time tend to keep up a Harmony among the Colonies, and to procure a Repeal of the offenſive Act.

5. That ſuch an Agreement be recommended to the Merchants and Traders of this City.

6. That, provided ſuch an Agreement is entered into by them, the Inhabitants of this City will concur with them therein; and farther will, by all lawful Ways, diſcountenance and diſcourage the Importation of Goods from any other Colony, until the Spring Veſſels arrive with ſuch Goods as ſhall be ordered by our Merchants, that they may reap the Advantage of the virtuous Self-denial they have hitherto exerciſed, for preſerving the Liberties of America, and that ſuch as ſhall bring, or connive at, countenance, aid, or abet the bringing of Goods into this Province, contrary to this Reſolve, ſhall be deemed an Enemy to the Peace and good Order of this City, and unfriendly to the Liberties of America.

7. That the Thanks of this Body be given to thoſe Members of the late Merchants Committee who reſigned at Davenport's, on Thurſday laſt, for their faithful Diſcharge of the Truſt repoſed in them.

8. That Meſſrs. Peter Chevalier, Benjamin Loxley, John Cadwallader, Daniel Roberdeau, James Pearſon, William Maſters, George Clymer, and John Shee, with the Members of the late Committee who reſigned, be a Committee to requeſt the Merchants and Traders of this City to adopt the Meaſure propoſed, and make Report to the Inhabitants at a public Meeting, which they are deſired to call when they are ready.

9. That theſe Reſolves be publiſhed, and the Inhabitants of this Province invited to concur therein.

Every Thing was conducted with the greateſt Order and Decorum. Buſineſs being over, the Thanks of the Company were voted to the Chairman for his Services. To the 4th Reſolve there was only one diſſenting Voice, the Reſt were all carried unanimouſly.

On Tuesday laſt, at a Meeting of the Common Council, Samuel Shoemaker, Eſquire, was re-elected Mayor of this City for the enſuing Year; Meſſrs. James Allen, William Fiſher, and Joſhua Howell, were made Aldermen; and Meſſrs. Joſeph Shippen, jun. John Cadwallader, Samuel Powel, Alexander Wilcocks, Stephen Carmick, and Peter Chevalier, Common Council Men.

Captain Robiſon, from Liſbon, informs, that Advice was received there, that the Danes had bombarded Algiers, and deſtroyed all the Forts.

October 11. On Monday next, the General Aſſembly of this Province meets here.

KINGSTON, (in Jamaica) September 1.

Saturday laſt died George Anthony Tonyn, Eſq; commander of his Majeſty's ſhip Phœnix; a brave and experienced officer.

Anthony Kirby, Eſq; is appointed to the command of his Majeſty's ſhip Phœnix, and ſails on Monday next for England.

Sunday came in his Majeſty's frigate Loweſtoffee, Robert Carkett, Eſq commander, the ſenior officer on the ſtation.

LONDON, August 4.

ALTHOUGH Mr. Serjeant Glynn, on the late trials of the printers and publiſhers of Junius's letter, inſiſted on the jury's right to judge on the law as well as the fact, the council on the other ſide, would by no means acknowledge that right. We can, however, quote an authority that will place this important point beyond a doubt; the ſuffrage we mean is of Littleton, who in his tenure, ſect. 368, declares, "That if a jury will take upon them the knowledge of the law, upon the matter, they may." And this is agreed to by Coke in his comment thereupon.

August 7. Yeſterday diſpatches were received at the ſecretary of ſtates office for the colonies from Boſton.

On Saturday laſt his moſt gracious Majeſty ſent a gentleman to Mr. Akerman, keeper of Newgate, who paid the ſum of 100l. which was levied by the houſe of lords on Mr. Edmunds (late publiſher of the Middleſex Journal, in which was inſerted the lords proteſt) the dues to the Black-Rod are ordered not to be paid.---An inſtance of ſovereign clemency in ſuch a caſe is not to be parralleled.

They write from the continent, that the progreſs of Ruſſia, with the late manœuvers of the King of Pruſſia, and the armaments making by moſt of the continental powers, indicate a general war throughout Europe, which it is feared, will take place much ſooner than expected.

By the great preparations made of late by the King of Pruſſia, it is thought he will ſoon declare either for the Turks or Ruſſians, having been much ſolicited by both parties.---Whoever he takes part with, it will certainly ſoon put an end to that bloody war.

August 8. The report of a coalition of parties is entirely falſe and groundleſs; and we are aſſured no union will ever take place between the preſent contending parties, the gentlemen in oppoſition have frequently declared, that they will never come into power again, unleſs every man who has attached himſelf to the preſent adminiſtration be diſmiſſed from his employment.

It is ſaid General Paoli is ſoliciting the intereſt of his friends to procure him a command in the honourable Eaſt-India company's ſervice.

We are poſitively aſſured, that the moſt coercive meaſures are now adopted by the major part of a certain board, to reduce the refractory Americans to their duty.

We hear a commercial treaty is concluded between the King of Sardinia and the Empreſs of Ruſſia.

Orders are now given for more ſhips of war to inveſt the town of Boſton, and for more regiments, who are to re-aſſume their old quarters in it.

By a gentleman lately arrived in town from Britanny we are informed, that the ten ſhips of the line, prepared to ſail at Breſt, have all of them double decks.

August 9. We hear that orders have been tranſmitted to General Gage, to act in concert with Commodore Gambier, in carrying into execution certain coercive meaſures of government with reſpect to the inhabitants of the town of Boſton.

The terms, it is ſaid, Lord M------ is to retire on, are theſe: His lordſhip is to have a penſion of 3000l. per annum, with a proviſo of his attendance at council, and private levees.

It is ſaid that matters are accommodated between the miniſtry and minority, and that a meſſenger has been diſpatched to Lord Camden.

Yeſterday a grand conſultation of ſeveral eminent phyſicians was held at Lord Mansfield's houſe in Bloomſbury-ſquare, who gave as their opinion, that his diſorder was an inveterate ſcurvy: It is ſaid that his lordſhip is in a very dangerous way, and his recovery doubtful.

"It is but juſt, (ſays a correſpondent) that thoſe who are guilty of Scurvy Tricks, ſhould be afflicted with the Scurvy."

An honeſt Jack tar ſeeing the D--- of C-------- at Portſmouth ſcribbling with his pencil in a pocket-book, cried out, "I wiſh your R---l H------ſs would write me a love-letter to Blue Moll at Wapping."

August 10. It is reported that a rupture will very ſpeedily enſue between the courts of Verſailles and Copenhagen, notwithſtanding all the efforts of the former to avoid it.

Yeſterday a council was ſummoned to meet this day at St. James's, when, it is ſaid, the motions of our enemies will be taken into conſideration, and what part Britain is like to take in any troubles that may commence, in order to put her into a proper ſituation.

The Right Honourable Henry Seymour Conway will arrive in town this day, from his ſeat at Park-place, to attend the above council.

It is ſaid, that as ſoon as it was known at Portſmouth that a reward was offered for diſcovering who ſet fire to the dock-yard, two ſuſpected perſons immediately abſconded.

One of the oldeſt men in England is Fleetwood Shepperd, Eſq; the friend of the late Matthew Prior, who is now living at his ſeat in Kent, aged 122.

Wedneſday the 6th regiment of foot, commanded by General Rufane, marched from their quarters at Chatham through St. James's park, in their way to Plymouth, in order to embark there for Penſacola.

We hear that all his Majeſty's Ambaſſadors to foreign courts, now at home, will have ſpeedy orders to ſet out for their reſpective ſtations.

Divers foreign agents are now buſy in London, inliſting recruits for the Iriſh Brigades in the French ſervice; two of thoſe agents are known, and ſearch is making after them.

Wiſe legiſlators have always thought it their duty to reduce the ſtanding army in times of peace.----Are the preſent legiſlators WISE ONES?

We are informed certain miniſterial agents with their pockets well lined, are preparing to ſet out on buſineſs of importance for New-York and Boſton.

It is ſaid, as an encouragement to the Weſt-India planters for not entering into the views of the American refractory colonies, that an additional duty will be laid next ſeſſions on foreign Brandies, in order to encreaſe the value and conſumption of rum.

The report of the duke of Grafton's having adopted conciliating meaſures with the oppoſition, is without the leaſt foundation.------His grace having declared he will not meddle in any manner whatever with public affairs during the receſs of parliament.

We are aſſured, notwithſtanding the late diſaſter at Portſmouth, that the nation could, within two months, fit out 90 ſail of the line.

We are told it has been determined to let the affairs of America remain in their preſent ſituation, (a regiment having been previouſly diſperſed in the environs of Boſton) till the meeting of parliament, and then to have concluſive and effectual meaſures determined on with all poſſible expedition.

A celebrated engraver has juſt finiſhed a print of a great perſonage leaning on a lock of a door on the outſide at St. Alban's, in the character of a FOOL, with the following label from his mouth, "I'll take my bible oath, I was not on the inſide." The lady is diſcovered in a ſwoon on the bed, the room picturesquely deſcribed. In ſhort the whole forms a very exact picture of a late much celebrated amour.

Yeſterday it was reported upon change that war will ſpeedily be declared by Denmark and France.

August 17. It is ſaid the indefatigable Dr. Muſgrave, has lately diſcovered ſome things of great conſequence to the nation; but being ill rewarded for his laſt intelligence, he is determined to keep this laſt ſecret to himſelf.

Extract of a letter of Count Romanzoff's, dated July the 19th, from the enemies camp upon the Pruth, on the other ſide of the River Larga.

"At the defeat of the enemy on the 18th of June, upon the eminences leading towards Bender, our army purſued and came up with them on the 15th of July, when the Turks had fortified their army upon a very ſteep mountain on the other ſide of the River Larga.------The enemy poured down upon us his beſt cavalry, to the amount of 20,000 men, which however were repulſed with very great loſs.

"As I had intelligence that the Turkiſh army, conſiſting of 80,000 men, was commanded by Caplan Hiry Kan of the Crimea, who had under him three of the moſt eminent Baſhaws, I reſolved to come to a deciſive engagement with him; which began on the 15th of July, and ended in a moſt complete victory on our ſide: For as ſoon as our men had gained the ſummit of the mountain, they drove the enemy out of their entrenchments ſucceſſively, till they fled in the utmoſt confuſion, and abandoned to us their whole extenſive camp, and an immenſe quantity of all ſorts of ammunition and proviſions, together with 30 pieces of fine braſs cannon, and a great number of colours.

"As the purſuit of the enemy by our troops engroſſes all my time at preſent, I am not able to ſend you the particulars of this glorious Action, as to the number of the ſlain, priſoners, and trophies, &c. till the next opportunity."

A Political Picture of EUROPE, for June, 1770.

THE French King leading Monarchs by the Noſe; the political Puppet-Maſter of Europe.

The King of Spain holding in his Hand a broken Spear, pointed croſs the Bay of Biſcay.

The King of Portugal a feeble old Man upon Crutches; has but one Eye, which is fixed upon Madrid.

The Emperor dancing a Pariſian Jig with the French Ambaſſador and Seven Electors.

The King of Pruſſia, a Fox in a Bramble-Buſh; peeping firſt out at one Corner, and then at another; but ſeeing an old Woman watching him, whips in his Head and ſits ſtill.

While the other Powers of Europe are laughing at each other, the DUTCH pick their Pockets, and laugh at them all.

The King of Denmark, a young Man who has old Counſellors; holds a Sword in one Hand, and a Branch of Olive in the other.

The King of Sweden in a very ſickly Poſture, ſhaking Hands with Ruſſia.

The Empreſs of Ruſſia ſitting under an Imperial Canopy, with a Turkiſh Foot-Stool, weaving a Crown of Laurel for herſelf.

The Pope ſitting in the Conſiſtory, on a three-legged Stool, ſometimes nodding at one Cardinal, and ſometimes at another.

The King of Sardinia hears much, but ſays very little.

The King of the Two Sicilies in a ſound Sleep.

The King of Poland a Monarch without a Crown, wandering through a Court without Nobles.

The Queen of Hungary and Bohemia reading Don Quixote with her Daughters.

The Grand Seignior ſtretched in a melancholy Poſture on the Borders of the Black Sea, half covered with Ooze and Sea-Weeds.

The King of G------B------ much puzzled; a fading Roſe and a broken Trident lying at his Feet.
